

City of New Richmond COVID-19 Community Outreach
Local Business Assistance
Week of April 27- May 1

Dear Local Business Owner,

We hope this email finds you well. In an effort to help streamline and simplify information, City staff have been working to compile information about various financial assistance programs available to local businesses. The information below pertains to the Hugh J. Anderson Foundation. Thank you for all that you do for our community! We will get through this challenging time together.

-City of New Richmond

Program Name: Hugh J. Anderson Foundation

Websites: <http://grantsoffice.com/GrantDetails.aspx?gid=1865>
<https://www.grantsoffice.com/Services/Grantwriting.aspx>

Who's Eligible: The Foundation awards grants only to qualified charitable organizations that are designated as tax exempt under Internal Revenue Service Code 501(c)(3) and are not classified as private foundations.

Summary: The Foundation is particularly interested in asset-based programs created, initiated, supported or staffed by the constituency for whom benefits are sought. This type of effort builds upon and further develops individual and community capacities. These programs or projects are internally motivated and organized, rather than need-based, service-oriented systems brought in and directed by non-constituents.

The Foundation is particularly interested in direct service programs that:

- Serve children and youth, especially those that provide personal development activities;
- Provide various social support services to the community at large;
- Provide access to health-related services and information; and/or
- Provide educational opportunities and enrichment to the general community.

Awards range: From $1,000 to $125,000 with an average award amount between $5,000 and $50,000

Use of Awards: The mission of the Hugh J. Andersen Foundation is to give back to the community through focused efforts that foster inclusively, promote equality, and lead to increased human independence, self sufficiency and dignity.

Terms: Applications are due March 15, June 15, August 15, and November 15, annually. When a deadline occurs on a weekend or holiday, the deadline will be the next business day.
